Volume 6, Issue 2 - Insert By Mike Bickel (RMBICKEL@STUPP.COM)

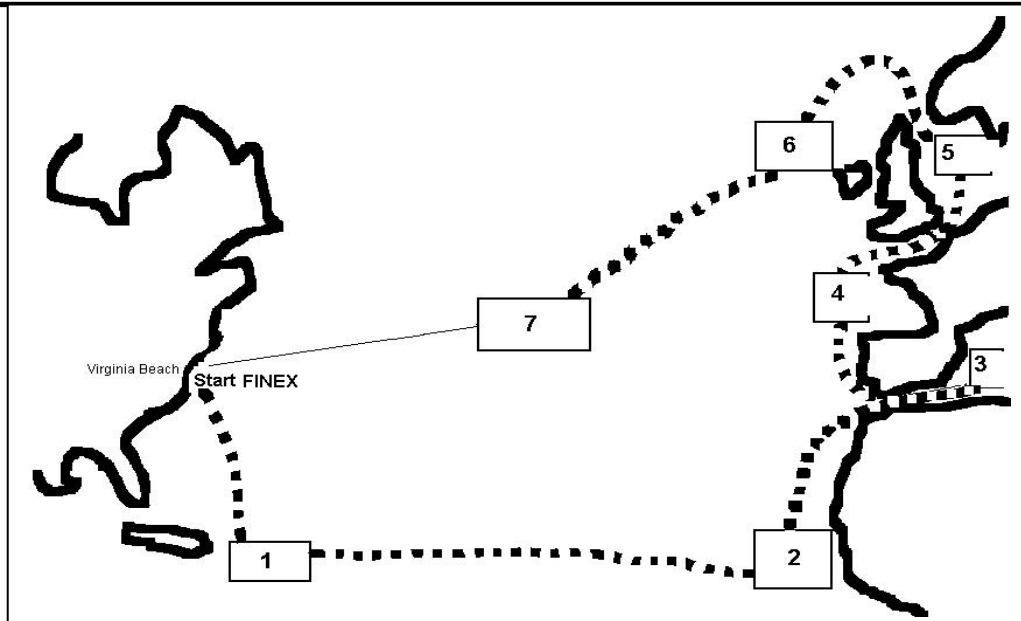

May 2005

We have arrived safely at OPAREA 7 and are making turns for home. Rich McCamant has redoubled his efforts during this last segment before heading for home. In fact, this is the most number of folks he has accounted for in a single newsletter. We've had to restrict him from the sonar shack as he seems to have gotten addicted to finding new guys and he's detoxing in the forward battery at the present time. Any more that are turned up from this point forward will be reported AFTER the reunion. Here is an update of the progress we have made on our latest transit.
